

Dianna Klisanin

With over eight years of experience in the funeral industry, Dianna Klisanin has dedicated her career to helping individuals and families in the GTA navigate the often-overwhelming process of end-of-life planning. Specializing in compassionate and thoughtful consultation, she guides clients through the important decisions surrounding funeral arrangements, ensuring peace of mind for both individuals and their loved ones.

As a trusted expert in the field, Dianna is passionate about educating communities on the benefits of pre-planning, offering clear, honest advice and creating customized plans that reflect personal wishes. Whether working with individuals, families, or senior communities, her approach is always empathetic, patient, and respectful of diverse cultural and religious practices.

Dianna has become a respected voice in the GTA, regularly speaking at community events, senior care facilities, and support groups, where she provides practical information on everything from legal considerations to financial options in funeral planning. Her mission is to empower individuals with the knowledge and tools to make informed decisions, ensuring that end-of-life plans align with personal values and provide comfort during challenging times.

When not advising clients or speaking to community groups, Dianna enjoys gastronomy, travel, reading, spending time with her friends and family, and supporting local charities in her community.
