

Dr. Elsie Osagie

Dr. Elsie Osagie is a family physician based in St Thomas Ontario, with community, Long-Term Care and hospital experience. She received her Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery degree from the College of Medicine at the University of Lagos in Nigeria and completed her residency in Family Medicine at Western University, Ontario. She has a special interest in geriatrics and completed her fellowship in Care of the Elderly at Western University. She is a Fellow of the College of Family Physicians of Canada.

Dr. Osagie has held various clinical practice appointments and administrative positions over her career. She is an Adjunct Faculty member at Western University's Department of Family Medicine. She is currently the Lead Physician at the Elgin Family Health Organization.

She is happily married with 2 children. She enjoys singing, playing table tennis and spending time with family.